

IN NORTH TOPEKA

Christmas Business at the Post-office Has Been Heavy.

Blue Post Will Hold Memorial Services for Dead Members.

With the prospective passing of the old North Topeka post-office, there has come a record Christmas business. During the past week the regular force at the office re-enforced by part time assistants have been working overtime to handle an accumulation of Christmas mail that according to officials at the station is a big increase over that handled last year. Comparative records indicate that outgoing Christmas mail is at least twenty per cent greater than that of a year ago. Incoming mail has made even a larger increase.

Early this morning the force at the office began to clear out the huge consignment of mail that was sent from the main office. Augmenting the influx from the south side office is the mail which pours in from Union Pacific trains number 103, 104, 105 and 106. Mail from these trains are sent directly to the North Side station.

Prepares for Christmas.

With the approach of Christmas eve, North Topeka is making preparations for a display of Yuletide spirit. Practically all churches on the North side will hold services Saturday and many of the churches have prepared entertainments to be presented this evening.

At the Central Avenue Christian church, the Second Presbyterian church and the North Topeka Baptist church entertainments in which children of the various Sunday school classes will be the principal participants will be presented. The Christmas program of the Kansas Avenue Methodist church will not be held until Sunday morning. The North Congregational church presented its program Thursday night.

At the Church of the Holy Shepherd, Holy Eucharist will be celebrated Christmas morning at 9 o'clock by the Rev. Creighton Spencer, Archdeacon of the diocese. Kansas. A musical service will include the following: Processional, Adeste Fideles; Introit, Greenland Kyrie Eleison, Tallis; Stainer; Offertory, "Hark the Angels Sing"; Sanctus, Canticle; Agnus Dei; Gounod; Gloria in Excelsis; Ellwanger; Post Communion; Everyone. Chant: Recessional, "White Shepherds watched their flocks by Night."

The services will be held at everyone. Will Hold Memorial Services. Blue Post No. 250 of the G. A. R. will hold memorial services at the North Congregational church at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in honor of members of the post who died during the past year. Among those for whom the services will be held are: John Kemp, B. J. Dunbar, Dr. H. C. Davis, Hiram E. Davis, Philip Lawrence, J. N. Leaf, Samuel J. Cromwell and Fred Dauber.

The principal address will be delivered by the Rev. J. E. Scherer, pastor of the Kansas Avenue Methodist church. Music will be furnished by the choir from the Congregational church.

The services will be open to relatives and friends of members of the post. Notes and Personal. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Morrow of 1020 North Monroe street will entertain a family dinner party at their home Saturday.
